5 Stars for Robert Oatley Vineyards

James Halliday

In the 2011 edition of his Australian Wine Companion, James Halliday rated Robert Oatley Vineyards a prestigious five out of a possible five stars, with the observation: "Outstanding winery capable of producing wines of very high quality." Halliday named Robert Oatley Vineyards as one of the best wineries in Australia, all the more impressive for Robert Oatley as a relatively new entry into the world of Australian wine.

Since 1976 "Australia's leading wine writer" has written and co-authored more than 40 books on the subject of wine, including contributions to The Oxford Companion to Wine. He has published an annual overview of Australian wine since 1986, and has won numerous awards for his work including being made a member of the Order of Australia by Queen Elizabeth II in 2010 for "service to the wine industry as a winemaker, show judge, author and promoter of Australian wine internationally, and through senior roles with a range of professional organisations."

Robert "Bob" Oatley has built a diverse family business that ranges from vineyards and winemaking to luxury tourism on Australia's iconic Great Barrier Reef. A decade after their success with Rosemount Estate, the Oatley family are leading a second Australian wine renaissance from their vineyards in Mudgee, New South Wales.
